How to Write and Answer Classified Want Ads

How to write a Want Ad to get a Boarder

THE boarder, as a rule, is a person who has become very proficient—in fact, expert—in his likes and dislikes for food.

Anything you can say that will make your HOME table appeal to the one without a home will secure for you the boarder you desire. Food should be of the best, well cooked and neatly served. Detail as to the kind of table you set, how many boarders there are, and whether you desire ladies or gentlemen. Explain the pleasant surroundings of your boarding place, the class of people patronizing it, and its convenience for different kinds of workers. Tell just how reached-car service.

People who engage board like to obtain a place that has every ease of a home, such as parlor, piano, library, telephone, and if you appeal for a high class of boarders, these added conveniences are worth mentioning. Remember, you want people who like to associate added social enjoyment with their eating.

To be sure of the most desirable of boarders, ask for references, and state price will be made on application.

[NOTE—This is the twelfth of a series of Practical Talks on the writing and answering of Want Ads for THE STAR'S Classified Pages. The idea is to make suggestions that any Advertiser can apply to the Want Ad he inserts, no matter what the need. These Talks are for the USER—who wants to increase his results.
